

Gillian M. Smart

Born in Trinidad W.I. Gillian is the President of Caribbean American News & Entertainment Television – CANEtv, an independent media company on that develops content for various media platforms some of which is published at www.CANEtv.net. The company was founded in 2014 as a spin off from Telelbo, a Haitian content broadcasting television network. She Co-Hosts a local radio show on WZAB 880am a long running radio program “Caribbean Riddims” with Eddy Edwards, & Cleve Osborne; Three @ 3. She has a featured segment on the show entitled “Mind Yuh Business” which focuses on promoting personal development, business development & leisure, while highlighting the individuals & companies that are trendsetters in these areas. Gillian also host a show with her son DriveTime with Gillian & James every Thursday 4-6 pm on Supajamz Radio in West Palm Beach.

A 20-year veteran educator with Palm Beach County Schools, Gillian holds a Masters in Ed. Leadership from Lynn University, a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from York College at CUNY, and National Board Certification in Business Career & Technical Education.

In her spare time she volunteers with CARE (Caribbean Educators Association) a philanthropic organization dedicated to raising funds for scholarships for High School Seniors of Caribbean descent.

Today, Gillian’s main focus is to build CANE Media Group by broadcasting original content appealing to the Caribbean & American market and to develop her media presence toward becoming the premier media outlet and a voice for the Caribbean & American Community, she is doing so one event at a time.

Affiliations:

- St. Paul AME Church West Palm Beach –
  - Steward Board, Church Leadership Committee & Media Ministry
- Caribbean Educator’s Association
- Democratic Club of Palm Beach County Precinct Leader
- Trinidad & Tobago Independence Ball Committee